A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in McLennan County.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Article XVI, Section 44(e), of the Texas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

(e) The office of County Surveyor in the counties of Denton, Randall, Collin, Dallas, El Paso, McLennan, and Henderson is abolished upon the approval of the abolition by a majority of the qualified voters of the respective county voting on the question at an election that the Commissioners Court of the county may call. If the election is called, the Commissioners Court shall order the ballot at the election to be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "Abolishing the office of county surveyor." Each qualified voter of the county is entitled to vote in the election. If the office of County Surveyor is abolished under this subsection, the maps, field notes, and other records in the custody of the County Surveyor are transferred to the County Clerk of the county. After abolition, the Commissioners Court may employ or contract with a qualified person to perform any of the functions that would have been performed by the County Surveyor if the office had not been abolished.

SECTION 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held on November 2, 1993. The ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in McLennan County."

Passed by the House on May 10, 1993: Yeas 139, Nays 0, 1 present, not voting; passed by the Senate on May 27, 1993: Yeas 31, Nays 0.

Filed with the Secretary of State, May 29, 1993.
